

Philippians 4:4 -7 Rejoice always

Paul wrote a letter to the people in Philippi while he was in prison. He encouraged them to rejoice all the time, no matter what, because God had done good things and loved them so much.

So let's spread a little happiness by doing some smile-bombing. How and where can you leave a smile this week?

Could you draw a smiley face with a stick in the sandpit at the playpark or in the soil somewhere? Could you make a smiley face on the path with stones or twigs? Or put some mud on the side of a tree and draw a smile in that.

Maybe you could make a stress ball by part-filling a balloon with flour or cornflour and tying a knot in it so that the flour or cornflour is packed in tightly. Then you could draw a smiley face on it and give it to someone who might appreciate it.

A prayer for when you wake up in the morning

Good morning, God.
What a wonderful day you've made.
Amen
